We work out of our modern office in Downtown Jacksonville, FL, in the heart of one of the city's most vibrant and exciting urban areas.

Job Summary

Are you an ambitious, goal-oriented student interested in developing your professional accounting skills while pursuing your degree? Are you a stickler for details and a fast learner who gets excited about the idea of working through a tax season with a trusted and respected medium-sized local firm where you'll be surrounded by supportive tax pros to assist you? Are you a service-minded individual with strong interpersonal skills who loves helping others and enjoys developing new relationships? If so, then we invite you to apply for a full-time tax internship with Brock CPA!

Brock CPA is looking for a Full-Time Tax Intern, available to work the upcoming tax season. In this role, under our guidance, you'll be learning by assisting with the preparation of standard federal, state and local income tax returns, performing basic tax research, and assisting in federal and state compliance, and other general aspects of accounting, with special emphasis on income taxes. Enjoy a role where you can continue to develop your professional skills including working towards your CPA license. This role may lead to a permanent position with the firm.
